UM GRADUATES ENTER MEDICAL SCHOOLS

MISSOULA--

Seven students who recently graduated from the University of Montana are entering medical schools this fall.

According to the UM Center for Student Development placement figures, about 70 percent of the UM graduates who apply to medical schools are accepted, compared with a national average of 40-50 percent of applying graduates being accepted.

An alphabetical list of the UM students and their hometowns follows:

Linda Shutz Barsness, Poplar, received a bachelor's degree in chemistry from UM and is a 1966 graduate of Poplar High School.

Tim Browne, Missoula, son of John and Virginia Browne, received a bachelor's degree in chemistry from UM and graduated from Sentinel High School in 1977.

David Goldfarb, Massapequa, N.Y., son of Morton and Dorothy Goldfarb, received a bachelor's degree in premedical sciences at UM and is a 1974 graduate of Massapequa High School.

Don Grewell, Billings, son of Dr. and Mrs. Dean Grewell, received a bachelor's degree in premedical sciences from UM and is a 1976 graduate of Alto Community High School.
